City announces $69,000 jobs program

By PAUL EVANS

BELLE GLADE—It was a fairly routine meeting for the City Commission on Monday, Nov. 26, with members announcing a $69,000 jobs program, allocating $1,645 for a Christmas party and announcing Home Health Care Week, to be held the week of Nov. 25 to Dec. 1.

The major issue of the evening was the announcing of the job program for minorities. The project, building a sidewalk, will employ 12 men and will cost $69,000 from the Jobs Bill fund.

In other business, the commission turned down an invoice for $9,360.81 from Briley Wild and Associates, consulting engineers and planners. The bill was for resident construction services for waste treatment plant improvements.

The commission turned the invoice down because there was some question as to whether there were to be any further price reductions in the bill. Commissioners did accept invoices for $457.38 for waste treatment plant revising, $4,697.02 for facilities planning for sludge dewatering, $649.04 for Arrowhead pump station and force main, $791.15 for miscellaneous services and $479.75 for typing and base maps for the city's comprehensive plan.

City Clerk June H. Boglioli requested and received on behalf of the city's 235 employees, $1,045 for Christmas parties.

The City Attorney told the commissioners that the city needs a more efficient way of determining which areas of Belle Glade can and cannot be

Commissioner wants public's views

By ELKE SCHWARZ

BELLE GLADE—Newly elected County Commissioner Ken Adams held a public meeting on Monday, Nov. 26, at the Glades Office Building to ask for ideas and support in keeping Palm Beach county fit to live in for the present and for the future.

Adams was elected Palm Beach county commissioner on Nov. 6. He is replacing Bill Bailey, who retired from the commission on Nov. 19.

Adams would like to have an aid in Belle Glade who would serve the public when he is not in the city.

"An aid in the Glades," Adams called it. Max Weaver is his aid on the coast.

Issues discussed in the meeting included:

- The continuing support for widening state road 80

- The reconstruction of Airport Road east of Pruitt Village

- Water usage and land planning

- Establishing a citizen's advisory committee to review city government

- Forming an agricultural committee

Commissioner Adams said it is important to know what the public wants before making a decision.

"We care," said Adams. "Our doors and ears are always open."

Wastewater treatment plant conversion tabled by city

By PAUL EVANS

BELLE GLADE—Members of the city commission met for a special workshop on Tuesday, Nov. 27, to discuss the feasibility of converting the city's waste treatment program from a liquid sludge to a solid sludge system.

Spokesmen from the engineering and planning firm of Briley, Wild and Associates, Inc. were invited in, and proposed that the city convert to a solid sludge process.

The process, called dewatering, uses a centrifuge which spins and literally "dewaters" the sludge from the sewer system. The method presently in force in Belle Glade uses gravity.

The major differences are that sludge treated in a centrifuge has less liquid in it and has the consistency of a sponge. Sludge treated through the gravity process maintains its liquid form.

One of the major problems considered during the workshop was how to dispose of the sludge.

Using the present method, liquid sludge is taken away and dumped in specifically designated orange groves by a contractor. The sludge can not be disposed of anywhere near lake Okeechobee because of the threat of contaminating the water supply.

The solid sludge does not have that problem. It can be easily handled and is more compact than its liquid counterpart.

Argument ends in stabbing

By PAUL EVANS

BELLE GLADE—An argument on Thursday, Nov. 22, ended with the stabbing death of a 27-year-old Haitian man and the arrest of his 19 year-old girlfriend on a charge of first degree murder.

Police responded shortly after 11 p.m. Thursday to a complaint that someone was ill at the intersection of S.W. Avenue B and S.W. 5th Street.

Upon arriving, patrolman Mark Miller found Cenatus Celenor slouched against a car and bleeding from a wound in his chest. Rescue workers administered emergency treatment on the scene and then transferred Celenor to the hospital, where he died at 12:11 a.m.

Glades Detective William Kenny and Patrolman Miller had in the meantime employed local citizens as interpreters and had located a suspect.

The suspect, Emma Jean Grandison, had lived in the same apartment as Celenor and confessed to the stabbing after police had placed her into custody.

Detective Kenny found a small paring knife which police believe to be the murder weapon. Grandison was booked on first degree murder charges and was placed in the Palm Beach County jail where she is being held without bail.

This is the 11th murder so far this year in the Belle Glade area.

Taxiway, franchise re-negotiations discussed

By PAUL EVANS
BELLE GLADE—In a special workshop meeting on Monday, Nov. 26, the City Commission discussed a proposal by a company to build a new taxiway and tie-down area at the airport.

Commissioners also discussed renegotiating the franchise agreements with Florida Power and Light (FPL) and Southern Bell telephone. The Chem-Spray company had offered to build a new taxiway and tie-down area at the airport; if the city would agree to provide them with the rock needed for construction.

The taxiway would be 250 feet long and would allow more space for transit airplanes to land.

"I think that even if we have to go out and buy rock from someone, we'd still benefit from having a free taxiway and tie-down area built," Mayor Thomas L. Altman said. "If it is something we need, it's the cheapest way to get it."

The other subject for discussion was the franchise agreement with Southern Bell, which ran out in September and, the agreement with FPL which is due to run out in June, 1985.

In the old agreement, Southern Bell paid the city a one percent fee for revenues on residential and commercial customers. Last year that fee added up to $10,000. When the city renegotiates that franchise, they want to increase that fee to three percent, which would bring it up to $30,000.

Southern Bell has indicated that they would go along with that proposal, but in return the city would have to deduct their licensing and property tax. Last year those taxes totaled $41,000. If the city were to go along with Southern Bell's counter offer, they would in effect have to pay the telephone company $11,000.

FPL pays a six percent residential and commercial fee. Last year that fee was $425,000, but they were able to deduct occupational license and property tax fees of about $16,300. The commissioners gave some thought to the idea of the city running its own power company, but tabled the matter and the franchise discussion for a later date.

EREC presents service pins

Service pins were presented at Everglades Research and Education Center, Belle Glade, Nov. 17, during a center banquet.

Pins for 30 years of service were presented to Dallas D. Nehls and Julius V. "Gene" McLeod. Nehls came to the EREC Sept. 24, 1954, moving to Belle Glade from South Dakota. He started as Agricultural Laborer and moved to position of Field Assistant for the Horticulture Section in September 1955.

In 1956 Nehls was promoted to maintenance supervisor. His title was subsequently changed to Field Foreman I and in 1969 he was promoted to Field Foreman II; and subsequently to Farm Manager in 1971.

Recently his title has changed to Farm Administrator. All of these various titles cover the job of running the farm operations and supervising the labor crew.

Through relatively simple in the early days, his job now involves many facets of administering the farm area as well as water maintenance, grower control system and inventory control.

Julius V. "Gene" McLeod, was first employed as laboratory assistant in the Animal Science Section, Sept. 1, 1954. He is one of those few true Floridians, having been born in Perry, Florida.

His title was changed in the 60's to Laboratory Technician II and he was promoted to Laboratory Technologist II in 1971 and subsequently to Chemist I in 1981.

McLeod spent his career working with the Animal Science Section with the various faculty supervising and conducting the various laboratory procedures needed to complete many of the experiments with beef cattle.

A pin for 20 years of service was presented to J.M. Barnwell. J.M. "Mac" Barnwell was first employed at EREC-Belle Glade as a laborer in November 1960 and promoted to Assistant Herdsman in the Animal Science Section on Sept. 1, 1961, and to mechanic helper, Oct. 1, 1962.

In May 1963 he was drafted. After serving in the U.S. Army, Mac returned to his job in May 1965. He was promoted to Machine Operator in November 1971. Recently his title was changed to Senior Laboratory Machinist.

She was promoted to Laboratory Technician II in 1970 and is now Biological Scientist II in the Plant Pathology Section.

Animal Science Section. In April 1971 he was promoted to Agricultural Technician II.

In October 1974 he decided to leave the Animal Science Section and was promoted to painter in the Buildings Maintenance Section.

H.L. has remained in that capacity and since the retirement of Mr. Jackson has been acting supervisor of the section.

Pins for 5 years of service were awarded to Barbara A. Curry, Margaret E. Green and Bolmon Slater, III.

Curry was employed Feb. 29, 1980, as a laborer assigned to our labor pool.

She has worked in that capacity and was recently promoted to Agricultural Technician I.

She is still assigned to the pool and works for the section that needs her services the most each work day.

Green also began work as a Laborer in the labor pool on Dec. 7, 1979 after working about three months on (OPS) Other Personal Services. In July 1980 she was promoted to Agricultural Technician II and assigned to the Plant Pathology Section. She was recently promoted to Laboratory Technician in the Plant Pathology Section.

Slater began working in the Animal Science Section Sept. 16, 1979 as Agricultural Technician II. He has worked with the beef cattle and was promoted in July 1983 to Agricultural Technician III.

Sludge—

City Manager W.E. Strang Jr. was in favor of the new solid waste project because of the dumping limitations on liquid sludge.

"If HES says tomorrow that we don't have a place for you to dump (liquid) sludge, we're in trouble," Strang said.

Strang also worries that the Department of Environmental Regulations (DER) could come in and eliminate the sites presently used for dumping sludge.

Representatives from Briley, Wild and Associates maintained that the solid sludge could be made into compost or stored in a landfill. They also maintained that there were more sites available, that the odor isn't as bad as that of liquid sludge, and that there is less chance of harming the water.

They also suggested that the city buy a dump truck and haul the sludge away itself. The city has applied for a grant from the DER that would pay as much as 55 percent of the cost of building a centrifuge disposal system.

If the city receives the grant, it would have to establish a Capital Improvement Fund that would raise at least $14,143 a year. This money would go towards construction of a new system when the old one needs replacing again.

Still, the commissioners did have some doubts. Mayor Thomas L. Altman pointed to the fact that it only cost the city $17,460 last year to treat and dispose of the liquid sludge.

Briley spokesmen had estimated a figure four times higher. Altman also suggested that the present system is still working and that the city wouldn't really be saving any money by building a centrifugal system.

Altman suggested that since it wouldn't hurt to just let the grant proceed through the proper channels, since the commission did not seem to be in agreement on what to do, that the issue be tabled until the commission could discuss the matter further.

zoned to sell alcoholic beverages.

On that same subject, Commissioner George Goforth asked if there were any ordinances which made it illegal to drink alcoholic beverages in public.

He complained that residents were constantly throwing beer bottles and cans on the street, and that aside from being unsightly and dangerous, it did not create a positive image for the Glades area.

Treadway - Hatton exchange wedding vows

BELLE GLADE - Rebecca Sue Treadway and Byron Ruethain Hatton were united in marriage Nov. 3, at the First United Methodist Church in Pahokee with the Reverend James H. Brewer performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Treadway of Belle Glade, and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hatton of Pahokee.

The church was decorated in colors of turquoise and hot pink, and the sanctuary altar was banked with areca palms. Spiral candelabra bearing nine cathedral tapers stood on either side of the Communion table which was graced with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and carnations mixed with peacock feathers and hot pink dracena foliage. The reserved family pews were also marked with a spray of dracena foliage and turquoise satin ribbon streamers.

Karen Corbin, organist, played a program of nuptial music including the traditional wedding marches.

After the mothers were seated, Lori Stevens, soloist and sister of the groom, sang, "Flesh of my Flesh" and "Walk Hand in Hand With Me." As the couple exchanged rings Mrs. Stevens sang "That's the Way", and at the close of the ceremony, she sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt on a prayer bench.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight silk chiffon and Venice lace, fashioned with a Victorian neckline, long tapered sleeves, bibbed bodice, and full flowing crystal pleated overlay skirt falling to a lace bordered cathedral length train.

Her gown was enhanced by lace appliques on the skirt with seed pearls on the sleeves and scattered over the dress. Her illusion veil was a mantilla of English lace secured by a Juliet cap which fell into two tiers with a lace border at waist length.

The brides bouquet was a cascade of pastel pink cymbidium orchids, candlelight miniature carnations and Stephanotis highlighted by Victorian lace ribbons and seed pearls.

Tina Renee Treadway, sister of the bride, was the Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Melinda Baker, Idania Blackwell, and Donna Richbourg followed by Lisa Anderson and Lori Stevens, sisters of the groom.

They each wore identical dresses of shockin turquoise satin with an embroidered bodice accented by a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves. The attendants carried cascade bouquets of peacock feathers with hot pink, fuchsia, and dark green caladium leaves and candlelight miniature carnations with streamers of turquoise satin pique ribbon. Matching hair pieces accented their gowns.

Ashley Cross, cousin of the groom, was flower girl. Her dress was an off white Victorian style, and her hairpiece was a halo of hot pink flowers with turquoise pique ribbon. She carried a candlelight lace fireside basket.

Mickey Stevens, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer and carried a heart shaped pillow of crocheted lace.

Dr. R.L. Hatton attended his son as best man. Groomsmen were Russel Anderson, Walter Pope, Michael Stevens, Gary Summers, and Michael Zaccagnino.

The men all wore black formal attire. The groom's boutonier was candlelight Stephanotis, and the best man and groomsmen wore hot pink freesia boutonieres.

Mrs. Treadway,

Coward attended the bride's guest book.

Immediately following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Hatton invited the guests to a buffet reception at their home. The bride's formal wedding portrait was displayed in the foyer below a staircase swagged in satin ribbons.

The centerpiece on the bride's table was a large bouquet of hot pink dracena foliage, carnations, lilies and eucalyptus.

The focal point of the patio-pool area was a multicolored pool fountain enhanced by bouquets of river cane, dracena foliage and carnations with candlelight.

Guests were served portions of a four tiered wedding cake and a groom's cake.

For a special hometown holiday...

Christmas, the most joyous time of the year, is fast approaching.

In South Florida we cannot look forward to a white Christmas, but we can eagerly anticipate all the other trappings of the season.

The poinsettias are beautiful this time of year and the weather is lovely.

This is a time for sharing, a time of love, and a time of faith.

We can make this Christmas special by looking for ways to help others. Many churches and civic organizations have programs to ensure a bright and cheerful Christmas for the less fortunate.

A number of community organizations have bazaars for the purpose of raising funds to help the needy.

In addition, there is the Toys for Tots program, which provides toys for youngsters and has made the difference in whether some families have anything to eat on Christmas day.

And finally, there is one more thing we can all do. We can do our Christmas shopping at home. It's good business.

Spending our hard-earned dollars at home helps create and maintain jobs and strengthen our economy.

Our local merchants are our friends and neighbors. All year long they put a lot into the community through the support of youth activities and other worthwhile causes.

They support everything from bike-a-thons to cancer crusades to scouting activities with generous donations of cash and merchandise.

In many cases, our merchants are also our civic leaders. They devote considerable energy toward heading up charitable activities. The sacrifice can be considerable.

When we shop at home, we help ensure the continued availability locally of services, supplies, and products.

Homestown shoppers help our merchants keep their prices down and provide a greater variety of merchandise, while encouraging competition. A healthy business climate here at home helps pay for government services provided by city and county government. The more businesses that pay taxes the better for all of us.

And finally, we can find the quality merchandise here at home that we can be proud to give to our loved ones at Christmas.

If we don't immediately find what we're looking for, we ask the friendly homestown owner. He will be glad to help with gracious attention that is all but extinct in the big city.

It's not necessary to make a three hour round trip across some of the worst roads in the state to do our shopping. That's time that can be better spent doing other things.

When we shop at home we help ourselves. It's good business.

Your best bet: Anything Goes

Cole Porter's "Anything Goes" opens Friday at Clewiston's John B. Boy Auditorium.

The musical comedy features lots of flashy costumes, brassy singing, and spunky dancing. Watch for the rubber faces of Frank Lasagna and Jim Federico.

Months of hard work by Ed Mieszaros and Actor's Community Theatre have gone into this play.

It reminds me a bit of Thanksgiving dinner. It requires lots of work, is delicious, and is over all too soon — only three local performances are planned.

The play will be presented Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. and on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Plan now to attend this outstanding showcase of local talent.

Two local teams are still in the running for state football championships.

The Class 2A Clewiston Tigers ran their season record to 10-1 by blanking Cocoa Beach Friday. The Tigers travel to Riviera Beach, where they face tough Suncoast Friday.

The Glades Day Gators defeated Miami Northwest Christian 14-0 Friday and face Tampa Berkeley Prep Friday in a semi-final game.

Good luck to both teams.

Naples Lely, the only team to beat Clewiston this year, lost in its first round of the state playoffs to St. Petersburg 28-7.

Sarasota Cardinal Mooney, the number-one ranked Class 2A team all year, also lost in the first round of the playoffs. Mulberry defeated Mooney 23-6.

The Humble King

December 2nd is the First Sunday in Advent. Advent is the season Christians celebrate in the remembrance of Christ's birth. It begins on the fourth Sunday before Christmas.

The origin of the word advent is latin adventus translated to arrive. From this we derive the meaning the time of the arrival specifically of the Christ-child. It is a time for preparation for the coming of the king of Kings.

The mighty King was a humble King, triumphant and victorious. He was made King by prophecy, by people, and by God. Christ, the King, rules and changes man in His own humble way.

The Prophet Zechariah relates the words of an oracle which includes the following, "Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem. Lo, your King comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on an ass on a colt the foal of an ass." Matthew in his Gospel ties this prophecy in with the kingship of Christ saying Jesus fulfilled Zechariah's words.

Advent is the time of the coming of a triumphant, victorious and humble king. Christ rode triumphant and victorious into the city of Jerusalem on Palm Sunday. He captured the imagination of the hopeless people who were grasping at straw.

Jesus was made king by the people in and around Jerusalem. They wanted a leader and king. Israel had reached its lowest ebb as a nation. For nearly six centuries except for a few years she had been under the domination of one or another of the powerful nations. Jesus did not desire an earthly kingdom and would reject the people's demands. Yet he had another side.

The humble King turned angry reformer when he found the Temple being desecrated. He cleaned out the money changers and the sellers of animals and birds who were violating the house of prayer. Humility has nothing to do with weakness. Jesus was a king by prophecy and by the people but he was king by God and of God. Christ cannot be captured but no matter what we do eventually Christ attains His kingship on His own terms.

Our preparation for the coming of the king begins with repentance. Repentance is the making amends for our wrongful way of living. Most of us today have at one time or another turned to Christ. As we celebrate His birth we ought to change our mind about our past action and strive to get back on the right track.

With our memory sharpened on every side by Christmas decoration, the sound of carols and the blending advance of days toward Christmas itself, we can more easily resolve to overcome our selfish desires and constant rebellion in the face of God's love.

This season is God's way of helping us remember our acceptance of His saving love in Jesus Christ. The sentiment of the Christ-child can move us to deeper and stronger faith in our crucified and risen Savior. We must never stay in the birthplace of Christ but move out to a full-orbed Christian experience.

Our preparation should not be limited to an inward resolve but result in a change in our outward actions. Just as Jesus showed His love in area of His life we ought to try to do the same. Our love received from Christ should not remain baby-size, but should grow as we share it.

As we remember the birth of our King let us not forget His was a victory of humility. His was a life of humility which goes from the stable of Bethlehem to Golgotha. It was not being humble for the sake of humility but the showing of the proper attitude.

The triumphant entry into Jerusalem as a result of the spontaneous acceptance of Jesus by the people may serve as a warning referred to earlier. Christ as a king on His own terms. The cries of "Hosanna" on Palm Sunday turned to "Crucify Him" on Good Friday.

When we accept Christ as king our allegiance is not a short-term affair but for a life-time. Loyalty is not a half-way affair but complete and without reservation or it is only lip-service. Let Christ be king and don't try to mould Him into a captive or puppet ruler or your scheme will back fire.

You may say so Christ was a humble king but look where it got him - a humiliating death on a rough wooden cross on an ugly hilltop in a tiny insignificant country. Why, historians didn't even make a record of His death."

Although his life or death isn't on the pages of secular history but history itself uses his birth as the pivot point of time. Look at the countless men and women who have followed the humble king in life and to death.

He was triumphant and victorious over death, time, and nations. Get ready! he is coming again to Bethlehem. Let us prepare a place for His love in our lives by changing our attitude to His. As Paul said, "Have this mind among yourselves which you have in Christ Jesus".

Gators whip Miami Eagles, advance to round 2 against Tampa Prep

By ELKE SCHWARZ

MIAMI — The Glades Day Gators proved their strength once again Friday night, Nov. 23, beating the Miami Northwest Christian Eagles 14-0 in a Region 4A playoff game.

The Gators advance to the second round of the playoffs against Tampa Berkeley Prep at the Glades Day home field 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 30. They are vying for their third state title in five years.

Inclinate weather did not deter a good size crowd of Gator fans, who followed the team to Miami, cheering them on to their victory.

Scoring both touchdowns for the Gators was Philip Echols. Echols scored the last touchdown in the remaining 53 seconds of the game.

This was his 10th consecutive game in which he ran for over 100 yards. The only time the Gators' lead scorer and rusher did not gain 100 yards was in the first game of the season.

Gator coach Byron Walker also attributes the touchdowns to the outstanding offensive line blocking for Echols.

Coach Walker was pleased with the game. "Due to the weather, the field was awful," Walker said. "I think the size of our team wore the Eagles out. We would just go tackle for tackle straight at them."

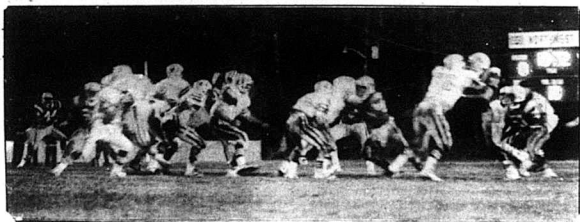

Aside from a couple of "air knocks" (players having the breath knocked out of them), there were no injuries during the game.

Walker also commended freshman fullback Wade McMillian, who filled in for fullback Hal Lesly. "I can't give him credit enough," Walker said.

Lesly suffered an ankle injury, but will play in next week's game.

GLADES DAY cheerleaders saw their team off to a successful start in their quest for another Class 1A state football championship Friday at Miami Northwest Christian.

Raiders concerned with inexperience

By BILL DOUGHTY

The 1984-85 version of the Glades Central High School varsity basketball team faces a tough challenge in trying to live up to last year's Raider squad.

That team went 27-5, won the District 13 championship and made it to the semifinals of the state AAA tournament before bowing to Tallahassee Godby.

First-year coach Jim Kanable's task is made all the more tough by the fact that, while on the surface his team seems experienced, it is in reality quite inexperienced.

The team is made up of seven seniors and five juniors, but only two of the players have varsity experience.

"Inexperience is our biggest problem. We're green. We might falter early in the season, but once the boys realize they can play on this level, we'll be OK. It might take a half-dozen games before they realize how good they can be," said Kanable.

Before you shed any tears for Kanable though, consider that many of the "inexperienced" players are up from last year's junior varsity team that went 19-1.

Consider also that Glades Central was ranked eighth among the top ten teams in the Palm Beach area in a preseason poll by the Miami Herald.

Kanable tabbed 6-foot-5 senior center Jimmy Humphries among his best players, although Humphries has never played organized basketball until this year. Other top players listed by Kanable were forward Anthony Robinson, a 6-foot-3 junior, Jimmy Johnson, a 5-foot-9 junior guard and six-foot senior guard David Givens.

Speed will be the key for the Raiders. The first year coach hopes to run a fast break whenever possible and then settling into 1-4 offensive pattern, with four men on the baseline and point guard Johnson running the show outside.

Defense will be a sore spot for Glades Central. Kanable's squad will throw a 1-2-2 matchup zone against opponents, with some man-to-man pressure tossed in for good measure. Look for full court pressure in spots, to take advantage of the team's quickness and speed.

Kanable seemed almost lachrymose about the regular season schedule, saying the main idea for the regular season is to "build for the tournament."

The Raiders will face some tough opponents during the year though. They play Suncoast, Palm Beach Gardens and Martin County, all state champions in their classifications last year. The Herald picks Suncoast and Palm Beach Gardens to be at the head of their class again this year.

Another tough opponent will come in the "Great Florida Shoot-Out," where 16 teams will be vying for one of the most prestigious titles in high school basketball.

The holiday tournament, hosted by Osceola High School in Kissimmee, features twelve top Florida teams including Glades Central, St. Thomas Aquinas of Fort Lauderdale and Tampa Catholic. In addition, schools from Louisiana, Georgia, Tennessee and South Carolina will also be competing.

The tourney begins on Wednesday, Dec. 19, and continues through the finals Saturday, Dec. 22.

Kanable is pleased to be participating in the tournament.

"It's quite an honor. This is one of the most prestigious tournaments around. It'll be good for the boys and will show us what we can do."

The junior varsity Raiders under the guidance of coach Ron Cook, have a lot to live up to also, following last year's 19-1 team. Kanable says they should do quite well.

"They should be a nice surprise. There are a couple of players who have shown good improvement and if they continue, it's possible we'll move them up to varsity."

Junior varsity contests begin at 6:15 p.m., with varsity games starting at 8.

Pahokee cage season to start

Pahokee's basketball season starts on Friday, Nov. 30, at Pahokee High School with a game against Twin Lakes High School. Pahokee had a 20-7 game season last year.

Fish fry planned

The Junior Class of Christian Day School will have a Fish Fry Dinner, Saturday, Dec. 1 at the Belle Glade Marina.

Serving time will be from 11:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m., and the menu consists of fresh Lake Okeechobee fish, hushpuppies, cole slaw, baked beans, tea and dessert.

Donations are $5 per dinner. Tickets may be purchased from any Junior Class member, or by calling Gloria Ramos in the office at Christian Day School.

Pahokee blanks Raiders in Muck Bowl 20-0

By PAUL EVANS

PAHOKEE—Pahokee High School shut out their rival of 50 years on Wednesday, Nov. 21, beating Glades Central High School in the county's first official "Muck Bowl."

Pahokee finished the season with a 5-6 record for the second year in a row.

"We had a very successful game," Coach Don Thompson said. "Coach (Dan) Brown's team played very aggressively, but we got some good breaks."

Blue Devils starting quarterback Pinnelle

McKelton threw for two touchdowns and 94 yards, and was later chosen as offensive player of the game.

First scoring for the Devils occurred when Glades player Darrel Sanders fumbled the ball on his own 26 yard line. Two plays after that, McKelton passed 28 yards to Ken Barry, who went on for a touchdown.

Tyronne Campbell and James Anderson took co-honors as recipients of the defensive MVP trophy.

Campbell made eight tackles and four sacks. Anderson made 12 tackles and six sacks. Defensive player Darrell Brown managed six tackles.

According to Coach Thompson, there was also good defensive playing by Venson Jones, Carl Bess, Pell Thompson, Darrell Bess and Jan Anderson.

Thompson also singled out the offensive line blocking of Marion Sherrod and Hose Smith. Donald Polk and Clarence Bess, the running of Pell Thompson and Alonso Smith and receiving of Donald Edwards and Kenny Barry.

Thompson attributed the shutout to the work of the defensive ends.

"They played an outstanding game," Thompson said. "They kept Glades quarterback Kenny Hammond bottled up."

According to Thompson, the win wasn't easy. "We were able to maintain control of the game after the first quarter," Thompson says, "but it was a toss up right up to the end because we kept expecting them to come back."

Tennessee reports plentiful catches of bass

Bass, Bass, Bass—
-Everywhere I look, people are catching big bass.

This past week saw some real dedicated & proud fishermen. Kelly Williams was all smiles when her picture was made with a 9 1/4 lb. bass.

Gary Bowermeister also brought in a 9 1/4 lb. Ken Bowermeister doesn't ever seem to tire of bringing in prize fish - a 10 1/4, 9 1/4, 9 & 8 pounder. Pete Lee was proud of his 8 1/4 pounder. But, I think Pete's wife, Ann, was a little disappointed because when she weighed it on her scales it weighed 11 pounds.

Pat Stevens came in with a double limit of 32 pounds some weighing up to 6 pounds. Pat also came in with 30 good specks he caught in Steins canal.

I also brought in a double limit this past week totaling 35 pounds - a couple weighing in at 6 pounds.

My guide party of Dan Hammack from West Palm Beach hauled in a 9 lb. 4 oz. bass. Specks are starting to show up in good numbers. they are still being caught on green jigs & minnows in the rim canal.

There's a Bass Hawk Tournament coming up December 8th & 9th, out of Anglers Marine in Clewiston. For more information contact Jim Wells at Anglers Marine.

With the fishing season approaching. My tip this week is to be sure and have a mechanic check the lube and seals in the lower unit of your motor. If you don't check them before hand, remember it'll be too late afterwards. If your boat has been stored outside or in a slip, you need to check your gas tank for old gas and water. Preventative maintenance is a sure way to avoid problems.

We have a fantastic fishing season coming. Until next week, safe up and I sincerely hope boating and good luck everyone has a safe fishing one.

Musician earns recording contract

By ELKE SCHWARZ
BELLE GLADE — Before his mother died, recording artist Tom Williams promised her that one member of the family would be successful. Williams maintains that determination and self-confidence are the keys to success.

"When I was growing up, my idols were Charlie Parker, Hank Crawford, and Grover Washington Jr.," Williams said. "I am an amateur in arranging music. Our album 'A Woman Built for Love' is a mixture of reggae, jazz and blues with a little rock mixed in."

Williams plays clarinet, saxophone and nine other woodwind instruments.

In 1971, Williams was playing in a local band called "Pieces Unlimited" when he assumed the name Mr. Williams T. and formed an image.

"I wore mirror rings and the women went crazy," Williams said. "I gave up wearing them because it was just too dangerous. I didn't want them torn off my hands."

Williams played in other local bands until 1982, when he formed his present band "Thrillers."

Williams said the road to success is not easy and he couldn't have done it without all the sponsorship and support he received throughout his career.

"Soundhouse Productions in Fort Lauderdale was absolutely fantastic," he said. "They recorded and mixed my album and just really worked with me."

This past August, Mr. Williams T. and Carlton Durant, co-founder and vice president of the "Thrillers," traveled to California on one-way tickets determined to return home with a recording contract.

When Williams arrived in Los Angeles, he started "knocking on doors."

"The people at Motown Billings travel through the door at you," he said. "It's the 'Don't call us we'll call you' treatment."

Williams remembers practicing on his saxophone underneath a freeway overpass in Los Angeles.

"In a span of an hour, I had accumulated $30 from people passing me on the highway," he said.

While in California, Williams says he played at various Hollywood night clubs such as Gaylords (Dinner Club), Saxophone Player, and the Accompanist, where he performed approximately 30 times in the past three months.

Williams says he is especially proud of the two minute overtime he received at the Accompanist one night while improvising on his saxophone.

He said he did something different to land a record contract.

"Instead of playing the producers a demo reel, I played them a cut from the original master reel. Despite the fact that it was recorded in a small studio, the quality is impressive," Williams said.

Williams now has a record contract with Native New Music Corporation which is located in New York, Los Angeles and Hollywood.

Williams says he is also negotiating with three major record labels for his album "A Woman Built for Love" and was recently informed that one of his songs on the album has potential to be incorporated into a movie.

Two singles of the album are also going to be released in a few weeks says Williams. "Radiation Bugle" and "Leading Two Lives with Four Women" are to be released on Williams own APTO (A Positive Thinking Organization) label.

Williams feels good about his image.

"Unlike other musicians, I don't drink, smoke or use drugs," he said.

Williams says he isn't going to forget his roots.

"I have a tremendous loyalty to the people who supported me in Belle Glade," he said.

Mr. Williams T. is leaving for California again after Christmas and he says he is looking for a positive promotional sponsor. Anyone interested may call 996-7181 or 996-3551.

Weather hinders carnival turnout in South Bay

that the weather was the carnival's main problem. "It's just like farm work," he said. "Bad weather brings a bad crop and good weather a good crop."

His carnival has 25 rides, 35 food and game booths, and employs 300 people. The most popular rides are the musical type rides, complete with sirens and bells.

Sanford inspects the rides every day. Insurance agents also come to the carnival and spot check the rides.

Running a carnival means hard work and long hours.

"It's a living," Sanford said. "I raised nine children on it. If you're good to it, it's good to you."

When it's time to move on, 150 men move around the clock, taking the rides apart, moving them to a new city, and setting them back up again in order to open the following night.

The carnival is on the road all year, traveling to 45 different cities, primarily along the east coast.

Sanford's wife and two sons travel with him.

"I don't get lonely,"

Cole Porter musical revived

Anything Goes!

PAHOKEE -- Rev. Manuel L. Sykes of the Hilltop Baptist Church of Riviera Beach was the keynote speaker recently at the Friendship Women Club annual anniversary program held at the St. James A.M.E. Church.

The Florida Association of Women and Girls Club also gave greetings from the Association. Mildred S. Taylor, served as chairman of the affair, and was assisted by Lucinda Golpin and Lizzie McKinney.

One of the highlights of the program was the recognition and presenting of orchids to former members of the organization in attendance.

Taylor said the club's theme is "It's Not What the Community Can Do for You: It's What We Can Do for the Community." The theme was emphasized with reflections on the many projects the club contributes to.

Other program participants included Mable E. Bell of Ocala, immediate past president of the Florida Association of Women and Girls Clubs, Rev. Thomas R. Francisco, R.C. Durr, Jerome Gowan, Roy L. Singletary, Charles Ken Edwards, Frank Cooper, Margaret S. Odens and Belinda Sykes. Following the program refreshments were served by Ella Leckie, Jamie Mae Ebonique Ladies Club and dinner for out-of-town guests was served at the home of club member Elizabeth McKinney.

By BILL DOUGHTY
Need a good laugh? Looking for good, clean, fun family entertainment? Want to do more than sit through just another movie?
These things and more are available from "Anything Goes," the current production by the Actor's Community Theater of Clewiston, set to open at John B. Boy Auditorium Friday, Nov. 30, at 8 p.m.

The musical comedy, featuring the songs of Cole Porter, showcases an altogether unlikely plot that has been described as "refreshingly absurd."

The version the Clewiston company will perform is a revival of a performance from 1962. This version includes several more Cole Porter tunes than the original work. Some of the more popular show tunes include the title song "Anything Goes," "You're The Top," "Blow, Gabriel, Blow" and "Take Me Back To Manhattan." Jazz aficionados will quickly recognize the strains of "I Get A Kick Out Of You."

Tickets for "Anything Goes" are $4.50 for adults and $1.00 for children under 12. They can be purchased from any cast member or at the door the night of the performance.

FBLA officers installed at school

The members of the Future Business Leaders of America Club at Glades Central Community High School held their Ceremony of installation of Officers, Tuesday, November 20, 1984. The officers of the club were officially installed by James

Allen, Jr., FBLA advisor and Glades Central business teacher. The officers elected were Maria Villarreal, President; Lana Fuller, Vice-President; Annemarie Thomas, Secretary; Harold Edwards, Treasurer; Michael Carkey, Parliamentarian; Jacqueline Vitier, Reporter; Sarah Donaldson, Historian, and Everlye Farquason, Chaplin. The officers were also recognized by advisors, Mrs. C.P. Granville and Mrs. Carolyn Brown. The members of the FBLA Club at Lake Shore Middle School, sponsored by Gail Davis, were also present at the ceremony. After the installment ceremony, the FBLA members served the guests lunch and everyone celebrated the installment of the officers and the beginning of a busy FBLA year.

Employer award presented

BELLE GLADE-South Bay Growers was one of three employers in the state to receive an agricultural employer award from the Florida Department of Labor and Employment Security recently.

The award was presented to David Rodriguez, clerical assistant for agriculture, general and administration for South Bay Growers at the Farmworkers Employer Agricultural Seminar Nov. 16 in Cypress Gardens.

South Bay Growers was one of three local businesses nominated by Belle Glade Job Service of Florida Manager Linda Metzger. Metzger also nominated Gulf and Western and the Haitian Catholic Center.

"The state had asked for nominations from the Job Service Office for employers who had worked closely with the migrant seasonal farm workers and Job Service of Florida," Metzger said.

"Twelve were nominated throughout the state and three were selected, South Bay Growers being one of them," she added.

In Metzger's recommendation of South Bay Growers, she stated that the company was one of the largest vegetable growers in the Glades area and provides a variety of services to over 2,000 migrant and seasonal farmworkers.

Metzger said the company entered into a recruiting agreement this year with Job Service. Under the terms of the agreement, all referral and hiring of migrant and seasonal farmworkers would be handled by the Job Service.

She noted that South Bay Growers, Inc. also provides housing for their migrant workers at an affordable rate. She added in the report that within the housing complex, there is a day care center, church, post office and laundromat for the migrant's use.

SOUTH BAY GROWERS was awarded the Agricultural Employer Award by the Florida Department of Labor and Employment Security and the local Job Service. Linda Metzger, Job Service manager presented the award to David Rodriguez, clerical assistant for agriculture for South Bay Growers.
